OASC Conference Exhibitor Code of Ethics

As a condition of exhibitor participation in OASC conferences, all organizations and/or companies must adhere to the following:

- ⊛ Resolve to offer business services ethically, professionally, fairly and courteously to all OASC members;
- ⊛ Recognize a moral responsibility to the public that should take precedence over all other interests;
- ⊛ Refrain from offering, endorsing, or sponsoring any action that is considered illegal in the State of Oregon, including specifically advocating the use of alcohol or drugs to minors, trespassing on school property, unethically influencing school/student officials, and fraudulently misrepresenting a product or service;
- ⊛ Commit to clear written statement of the terms and conditions of purchase and to make those terms fair and timely, as normal industry standards dictate;
- ⊛ Refrain from making false or misleading statements about a competitor or a competitor's product or service;
- ⊛ Support the buyer's desire to shop around and investigate references.
- ⊛ Commit to responding and satisfying any complaint regarding services or staff.
- ⊛ Refrain from consuming alcohol or other illegal substances prior to contact with students.
