

2013 National Conference for Student Activities

Pre-Trip and Pre-Conference:
Friday, Dec. 6 - Sunday, Dec. 8, 2013

The Texas Association of Student Councils is delighted to invite you to Austin, Texas, for the 2013 National Conference on Student Activities: a professional training and networking opportunity for advisors of student clubs and organizations, honor societies, class officers, and leadership teams as well as leadership class instructors. If you work with middle level or high school students, this conference is for you.

Experience Austin!

Sound? We got it. After all, Austin is The Live Music Capital of the World.

Food? Oh yeah, you can taste it now....from barbecue to Tex Mex to high-falutin' cuisine.

Sights? Just wait 'til you see a longhorn wearing lights!

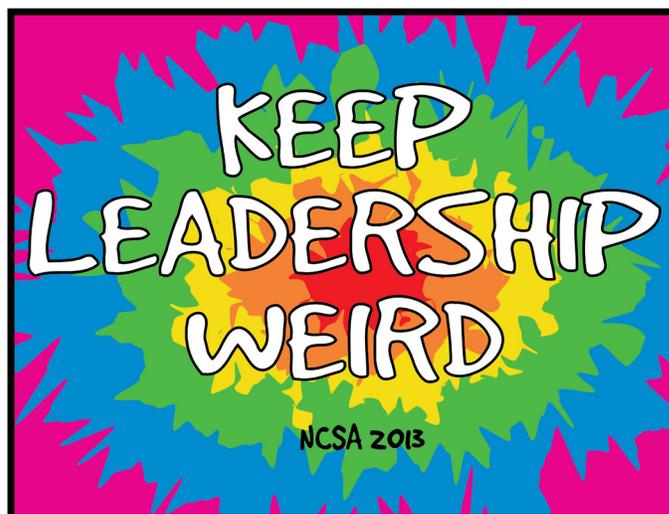

Learning? You know the program will be top notch!

Good friends and laughter? That's what NCSA and Austin are all about.

Sleeping? Well, partner, there won't be much time for that, but we have rooms at the Austin Omni Downtown.

So join us fo...

Where Everything Is Radically Different

NCSA gives you three amazing days to share your passion for working with student leaders, discover how you can grow as a professional, and engage with experts so you can advance your organization. From skillfully led interactive sessions to one on one conversations with your peers, you'll leave ready to tackle your biggest challenges and better serve your members. You'll love TX Talks, TX Tech, TX Training, TX Trades of Ideas, and TX Treats! But most of all, you'll love the life-long friends you'll make.

.....

options for exploring Austin:

- seeing our world famous 6th street (www.6street.com)
 - a visit to the Bob Bullock State History Museum with its Spirit of Texas Theatre (www.thestoryoftexas.com)
 - shopping, eating, and sightseeing your way down funky South Congress Avenue (www.videocityguide.com/austin/listings/south-congress-avenue-shopping)
 - stopping by the hip 2nd Street area (<http://www.2ndstreetdistrict.com>)
 - and ending your day with some boot scootin' (www.brokenspokeaustintx.com)
 - a trip to Esther's Follies to enjoy its classic Austin comedy show (www.estersfollies.com)
 - or seeing Austin's favorite elf in The Santaland Diaries (www.zachtheatre.org/2012-2013-season#santaland-diaries)
 - And remember, Austin is the Live Music Capital of the World (www.austintexas.org/musicians)
 - We promise there will be entertainment, sights, music, and good eatin' for every interest!
-

Austin omni Downtown

Just a few blocks from the State Capitol, the Omni offers the best of Texas luxurious accommodation in the heart of downtown, one block from historic 6th street, three blocks from the Warehouse Entertainment District, and a short walk or a pedicab away from 2nd Street. And then there is South Congress. It's a short 5 minute drive. The nearly 50 restaurants and nightspots of the Austin Entertainment District will be right at your front door!

Room rates: $139 double or single. Reservations can be made by calling 1-800-THE-OMNI, or on the internet with a link. After January 1, 2013, a room reservation link will be placed on the NASSCED and NAWD websites along with additional information about the event. Conference rates will be honored before and after the conference based on availability. Mention the National Conference on Student Activities (NCSA) if you call for a room.

Be sure to sign up for the loyalty program with Omni. When you do, you will automatically receive the following: Complimentary Wi-Fi ▪ Complimentary Morning Beverage Delivery ▪ Complimentary Pressing of 2 Items ▪ Complimentary Bottle of Water ▪ Complimentary Shoe Shine ▪ Express Check In & Out ▪ Complimentary Newspaper of Your Choice Daily ▪ Customized Room Preferences ▪ Evening Housekeeping Service Including Turndown

Flying in? Austin Bergstrom International Airport is just down the road. Super Shuttle $24 Round Trip | The Austin Flyer ($2) will take you just seven blocks from the hotel where you can catch a cab. (www.capmetro.org/schedulemap.aspx?f1=100&s=1&d=1)

Austin Weather: The average high in Austin in December is 62 degrees, and the average low is 41. Expect sunshine and good weather so you can enjoy the lights, sounds, and tastes of the holiday season.

.....

You will experience a conference with great showcase speakers, excellent curriculum, interactive workshops tailored to your needs, hands on learning that you can apply immediately, great networking, and, oh yeah, fun!

So, ya'll come on down and stay a spell.

You'll be glad you did!

Go to: www.nawd.com for more information

.....

