

ADVISER LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE

with John Norlin

July 17-18, 2017

OASC Invites you to join us for Adviser Institute with leadership expert John Norlin at Western Oregon University. This institute will provide adult leaders and teachers of leadership an interactive experience to learn new techniques, network with educators from across the state, develop leadership lessons, and acquire the tools necessary to be successful in their journey as an adviser and/or leadership teacher.

ABOUT JOHN NORLIN

John helps students and educators learn how to become servant leaders. His mission is to spread the word of the power of servant leadership while teaching others how to build influence in the lives of those around them. John has committed his entire time as a student, and now his professional career, toward helping people and schools transform themselves into places that truly care about the well-being of others.

John is the Program Administrator for the Whole Child for the Sumner School District, a Servant Leadership trainer, motivational speaker, and Director of one of the Washington State High School Summer Leadership Camps through AWSP. He is a past Washington Activities Advisor of the Year and taught 5 leadership classes per semester for 10 years as a leadership teacher at Sumner High School. He has spoken to over 250,000 students and educators over the past 20 years.
