

ADVISER LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE

with SANDI KURLAND

July 23-24, 2018

OASC Invites you to join us for Adviser Institute with leadership expert Sandi Kurland at Western Oregon University. This institute will provide adult leaders, advisers and teachers of leadership an interactive experience to learn new techniques, network with educators from across the state, develop leadership lessons, and acquire the tools necessary to be successful in their journey as an adviser and/or teacher of leadership.

ABOUT SANDI

Sandi Kurland is a teacher, leadership coach and facilitator, avid reader and wanna be adventurer. She is the Leadership Development Coordinator for CADA (California Association of Directors of Activities), CASL Coordinator (California Association of Student Leaders), Executive Director for California, and Youth Specialist for the CSBA (California School Board Association). She holds an Undergraduate Degree in Political Science and History with an emphasis in Leadership, a Masters Degree in Education and travels throughout California developing strong student leaders wherever she goes. Over 10,000 students per year now participate in the piloted Leadership Development Days program she began. In her spare time, she hikes through the jungles of the Amazon and loves sunshine.

COME EARLY & STAY LATE!

Adviser Institute falls in line with HS Summer Leadership Camp Session 2. We invite you to encourage your students to attend camp and you can be a fly on the wall during their leadership training.
